Haste: Haste: Poste: Haste.

Your intire Prince and God of this world, Lucifer, Prince of Darknes, and Superstition, King of stike and Phlegeton, Suppreame Lord of Ghehenna, Tartaria, Colmakia, Samoyedia, Lappia, Corelia, and Colmagoria, Prince abissus, and sole commander of Seeberia, Alteenia, Pechora, & of all the Infernall furies & their punise, the Jesuites, Priests, and Semenaries.

Sendeth Greeting,

Moste

early beloued Sonne, and you our dutifull childeren, whose sanctity we reuerence whose persons we adore, whose wisdomes we admire, at whose Pollicis wee wonder at whose power we muse, and at whose iuincible stratagems we stand amazed.

Nor can we in the first place, but extoll, applaud, & most highly commend thee our deere sonn for the extreordinary care in the advancement of our Kingdome.

And as next in place the extreordinary dilligent and vigilant care of all our beloued children the Lordly Bishops, in the advancement of our Regall power to the great enlardgment of our infernall dominions, by their rare & Subtill plots, & stratagems.

And in a more spetial manner we are pleased through our infernall grace & fauour to extoll them for this their present and excellent invention, in sowing discord amongst the English heririkes, as also in prouoking the Scots heririkes to an apparant oposition against their King, yea so farr as to an inuasion of the Teritories of England, al which seruices are most deare and acceptable unto us.

In respect of which seruices, as also for their fidellity to vs & our king dom, we haue caused our princepall secretary of estate, Don Antonio Furiioso Diabelo, to make an especiall Inroullment of their names in our Callend amongst those our deere seruants the plotters of the gunpowder treason, and the most renowned the complloters of the former inuasion of England, in the yeare of grace 1588. and since the creation of the world 5609 both which seruices although their events were no wayes answerable to our royall expectation, yet those instruments that so freely aduentured themselves in them, shall be euer renounced in our Court infernall, and most acceptable to our person.

And for the better incouragement of these our trusty and

and wellbeloued seruants in the speedier advancement of this worke, now intended for the vtter extirpation of all heritikes & increace of our regall power, we are pleased by this our royall manuell to giue vnto them assurance of our aid & best assistance in the most efficacious manner that our Princely power can extend vnto, And because our former stratagemis put in execution by our beloued Cosen & Councelor the King of Spaine were by him nowayes effected according to our princely expectation, We haue now therefore imposed our princely command upon our beloued seruant the King of France, at the humble sute made vnto vs, by our children the Lordly Bishops and by some of our seruants of greatest quality in the Realme of England, as also by our seruants the Iesuites and Romanic Catholikes of England, To haue a Puissant armie in readines, for the Inuasion of England, at such a time, as those our children and seruants, shal conceiue it most conuenient, & efficacious.

And further our will and pleasure is, that you our deere Son shall still persist to stirr vp & Incourage our children the arch-Bishops, as also thy disciples & our Loyall Subiects & seruants, the Iesuites, Priests, and Semenaries, to this work, that they with all their might together with our powerfull policis granted vnto them may strue to effect this work with all Celerity, That we may once more see our Kingdome of Superstition Re-established: in the Monarchie of great Britayne, and Ireland,

The motiues to be pressed, iuducing them to the expeditious effecting of the same is principali, their respect to our Kingly honour next their owne increace of greatnes

greatnes for we promise & assure them by the word of a King Infernall, That every of them shall raigne as Princes under vs, not onely ouer the bodies & estates of men but also ouer their Soules, by & through the many infernall graces by vs most freely and benignly Conferred on them, and hereby, to make them the more sensible of these our seuerall graces conferred on them, we are pleased therefore here at present to expresse but some few of them in perticular (as namely) pride, vaine, glory, hipocrisy, selfe-loue of themselves & of this present world, loue of will worship, & advancement of Idolatry; Together with that speciall gift of couetuousnesse The onely piller to all the rest of our infernall graces conferred on them.

Thirdly. In respect of the cleare passage by us made for them, by setting the heritikes for this long time at variance amongst themselves, By our trusty servants the Lawyers, and advancement of Idolitry amongst them, The onely meanes in our Princely wisdom corceaueed to be to the breakeing of the bond of unity and peace, thereby to prouoke the great God of heauen to leaue them to themselves and to our powerfull stratagemse, We are likewise pleased to take speciall Notice of that service done by our children the Lordly Bushops, in working the dissolution of the assembly of Parliament, in May last past 1640. by which meanes nothing was effected for the good of heritikes either concerning their church or common welth, so as the succees of this dissigne of ourse was thereby no ways hindred you are likewise to let them know from vs, that the Noblemen of England are dishartened, the the Gentry, daunted, the Comu-

nality devided, the number of our servants the Romman Catholiks infinitely increased, and the Realme in Genrall greatly oppressed not onely by the sundry Monapolies but also by the invinceable opressing power of our children the Lordly Bishops, the multitude of our servants the corrupt Judges, base minded Lawyers, seditious Attornies, and woden headed Docters of our Siuill lawes, Procters, Prothonotaries. Regist-rs, Advocates, Solicitors, and Apparators, whom wee haue caused to sw arme, like to the Egiptian Locusts, ouer al the land for the sowing of discord, & blowing the coals of contention amongst all the Inhabitants of the same, they haueing al of them long since receaued instructions by some of our infernal spirits sent forth from vs to that effect.

You are likewise to let them know, that out of our princely respect to them and their dambenable actions for our honour, We are pleased to take spetiall notice of that service which they most willingly endeauored to effect for the confusion of all the heritiks: Inhabiting England, Scotland, Ireland, and the Netherlands, by the late (conceaued) Inuincible Armado procured from Spaine in the yeare of our raigne 5660. Which through the providence of the Celestiall powers then ouer them.

And the disturbance of Martain Harper Trump, here below, Fayled of that Sucses which we together with them expected and hoped for, To our no lesse sorrow then theirs-

Nor can we but aplaud the dilligent care taken by our Children, & servaunts of greatest quality in that Kingdom, In preventing the discovery of that Inuasiue plott, by the heritikes, and their small well-meaneing State.
Through

Through their speidie flight to dover Rode, and private Conference there with Don Oquindo, the Generalissimo of Spaine to that effect, All which was most exquesitly performed, especially by our hispaniolized lacklatine Lord, our deereley beloued Servant.

And lastly our hope is, that this presant plott sett on foot by these our trusty & well-beloued children, and Servants asforenamed, & by their earnest endeouours & our assistance once effected, will Crowne all our labours to our unspeakeable Terrestriall glory, and their eternal favours by vs to be conferred on them in our Royall pal lace of perdition where we haue already Imposed our Royall command vpon our trusty and wellbeloued cozen and counselor, Peoter Tretyacoue Chancelor Evane Becklemeesheue our Knight Marshall, Richardo Slowe Treasurer, and Don Serborus grand Porter of our said Pallace, to giue them free admittance into our Royall Presence.

Thus, no wayes doubting of your singular care and dilligence in fullfilling this our Royall will and Pleasure hereby expessed, we do further impose our Royall favour and Princely respect to be by you presented vnto our trusty and wellbeloued cozen and counsellour your present nuntio in the Court of England, as also vnto our beloued children, and servants, the Bishops, Jesuites, Priests, and Semenaries, our faithfull, agents in this invinceable plott, and also to all our faithfull subiects & servants the Romane Catholikes of England.

We are pleased to remaine. Your Royall Soffer-raigne and Patron of all your dambenable plots and stratagems now in hand.

Giuen at oure Internall pallace of perdition this 1. of September, and in the 5661 yeare of our most damnable raigne;

Poste Scripte.

Since the aboue written wee are credibly informed of the intention of a most scandalous petition to be deliuered by a small number of heriticall Lords vnto their King at Yorke, which doth not a little touch our honour, and the discouery of this our present stratagem. Our expresse will and pleasure is, that there be some speedy course taken for the suppressing of the same, And the authors thereof severely punnished, and Pomfret Castell allotted vnto them for their abode, vntil our wil and pleasure be further known and this our dissigne be effected, of which faile you not, as you tender our Royall favour the suckses of this our dissigne, and your owne safety. Farewell.

Most gracious Sofferaigne

The sence of that duty we owe to Gods sacred Majesty, & our nearest affection to the good and wellfare of this your Realme of England, haue moued vs in all humility, to beseech your Royall Ma'ty, to giue vs leaue to offer to your princely wisdom, the apprehencion which we and others your faithfull subiects haue conceiued, of the great distemper and danger now threatning this Church & state, & your royall person, & of the fittest meanes to remoue & preuent the same. The evils & dangers whereof your Ma'ty may be pleased to take notice of, are these.

That your Ma'ties sacred person, is exposed to hazard & danger, in this present expedition against the Scottish Army, & that by occasion of this warr, your Ma'tys reuenue are much wasted, your subiects burthened, with cote and conduct mony, billiting of souldiers, & other military charges, & diuers rapinse & disorders (committed,) in severall parts of this your realme, by the souldiers raised for that service, & the whole realme full of fearse & discontentments.

The sundry innovations in maters, of Religion, the oath of Cannons, lately imposed vpon the cleargy & others of dry other Coumpties of this your Realme, which by the lawse, they are not permitted to haue any armes in t heir owne houses, The great mischief that may fall vpon this Kingdom, if the intention which hath beene credibly reported, of the bringing in of Irish and forraigne forces should take effect, The heauy charge of marchants, to the great discouragement of trade, The multitude of monapolies and other pattents, whereby the commodities and manufactures of this Kingdome are much burthened, to the great and vniversal grivances of your people, The great griefe of your subiects, with the long In-termiſſion of Parliaments, & the late & former disoluing of such as haue bin called, without the happy effects which otherwise they might haue produced, For remedy whereof, & preuention of the danger that may ensue to your Roy all person & the whole state. They do in all humility & faithfullnes beseech your Ma'ty, that you will be pleased to summon a Parliament in some short & convenient time, whereby the causes of these & other great grivances, which your people suffer under, may be taken away, & the Authors & councelors of them, may be brought to such le-gall tryall, & condigne punnishment, as the nature of their offences shall require, and that the present warr, may bee composed by your Ma'ties wisdom without bloodshed, in such a manner as may conduce to the honour of your Ma'ts

HERE FOLLOWETH A BREEFE RELATION of a great feast which from Lucifer Prince of hell was by the hands of Cardinall pegusious presented to the view disposall and approbation of the Pope of Rome in the yeare of Anbely, 1641.

Pope

MY Lord Cardinall pegusious, and you the rest of my holy brethren, I beseech you, view these excellent varieties and variety of excellencies, well dressed, and most exquisitely set forth and Garnished. But the contents of every dish, I beleue is best knowne to you my Lord Pegusious, from whom I desire to be satisfied, concerning the contents, qualities, and operation, of every severall dish.

Card'i. May it please your Holinesse, These varieties of dishes, which your holines here sees thus set forth, Were all of them prepared, for the onely Table, of our high & mighty Monarch, king Lucife, your holynes sole Patrone, and protector, A certaine number of which dishes his Ma'iy hath graciously bin pleased, to cause them to be presented to your holines disposall, and the residue of them, onely, to your holines view and approbation, being to be preserved for his Ma'ties owne peculiar pallate.

Pope. I beseech you my Lord Car'd, let me haue them brought hither before me in order, according to the appointment of my Sofferaigne, & most munificent Patron,

Car'd, Your holynes will and pleasure shall be accomplished, and here in the first place may it please your holynes to take notice, that the first dish by his Ma'ties appointment to be presented to your holines disposall, is this large (Lattin charger) containing twenty two, Lordly English Bishops, stued with the fire of contention, on the chafindish findish of exasperation and seasoned with the severall spices of mans invention, as with the spice of the masse, Priesthood, holy-dayes, Altars, Candles, Rayles, holy-bread, holy-water, holy-ashes, deuout prayer for the dead, invocation of Saints, offerings at the Altars, excommninations, and the strong and operatiue spice, of the high commision. It is also garnished about, with the severall heritickall Doctrines of all the New intituled, priests of England, & this dish his Ma'ry hath appointed to be disposed of by your holynes.

Pope. I will surely taste of it, (it lookes louely) Oh Admirable? it is a most L A V D able dish of meat: I can find nothing wanting in this dish: but onely three graines: of the spice of accomplishment: and then it had bin deuoutly seasoned for my pallatt: but I pray what is the next dish my lo'

Card', The next dish may it please your holynes: is a silver charger, comprehending all the contrivers, and complotters of the dissention betweene England, and Scotland, of the last Spanish invasion of England, and the practisers with the French for the subversion of all the heritiks in England, Scotland, and Ireland, it is seasoned with all our Iesuitical practises, Church policies and al our English Romane Catholike trecheries, and garnished with al our English Romane statistes: this dish of meat is now almost cold, and therefore at this present vnfit for your Holynes pallatt, it onely wants the breath of the Earle of Straffords fiery zeal to heat it, by a Laudable blast or two.

Pope. However I pray let me taste of it. Oh the lamentation of a sinner, pity, pity, yea a thousand pities is it, that this dish had not bin kept hott and seasoned to the prooffe, that we might haue sung most Laudably, te Lucifer Laudamus. But my lo' Card' what is the next dish.

Card', May it please your holynes, this dish contains, a
certaine

certaine number of false and corrupt Iudges, it is seasoned with the spice of aged detestable couetuousnes, bribery, extortion, oppression, iniustice, unmercifullnes, and with pervertion of all the statute lawes, garnished with ship money, Forrest money, lone money, and a multitude of flouprises but this dish is by his ma'ties speciall order to be preserved for his owne peculiar pallate.

Pope. His Majesties will be done, I shall be ever ready & obedient to all his Ma'ties, com-mands, nor will I presume to taste of it: but onely passe my iudgment on it, that it is a Princely dish, fit onely for his Majesties table.

What is the next I pray my Lord,

Card'i. The next may it please your holynes is a large Golden charger: contayning a very great number of bace minded covetuous u iust: extorting & oppressing Lawyers who value every word by them vttered at a barr of iustice, at a farre higher price, then your holynes doth your Buls, issued forth for remission of sins, & these caterpillers, his ma'ti king Lucifer: hath brought into such great esteeme, with all the inhabitants of England, as that no man of quality thinks his house to stand, vnles it bee supported by one of those vermine pillars and broud of contention this dish is seasoned with the spice of extorting fees from one twenty-shillings ppeece. to 5. to 10. yea to 20. espeacially by those who are stiled the iudges favourites, all this is giuen some times but for the speaking of 2. or 3. words. it is likewise seasoned with the taking fees on both sides, deluding clyents, spinning out the thred of an honest cause to its full length, vntill the purf-strings both of plaintife and defendant crack, and then they are tied together, by a commission into the country, where these caterpillers are revered and feared like so many Gods, by all the people, this dish is garnished with some

some 10000^o pestiferous petty fogging, sedicious 10-groat Atturannies, one of whose perfidious bills of charges, in one tearme advances it-selfe sometimes vnto the sum of 5. 10. 20. yea 30 pounds. espeacialy whē he finds his clyent naturally inclyned to the conditions of an asse. And on every of these garnishes hāgs 5 conny-catching deceaitful Solissitors properly termed Lawyers-limetwigs, traps, or nets, to catch the poore silly creatures caled clyents, & this dish his Ma'ty hath also reserved for his owne table.

Pope, It is a Princely dish indeed, and fit onely for the peculiar table of so great a Monarch, as is our most damnable Sofferaigne King Lucifer, the operation & vertue of which dish, is able to season a whole kingdome, to be fit meat for his Ma'ties pallate, espeacially if there be but the operative spice added to it, called the (action of the cace)

But what is this dish my lord Card'i.

Card', may it please your holynes, this dish containes a certaine number of bace muck-wormes, stiled, Docters of our sivill law. Chancelors and Officials, this dish is also seasoned with the uniuert spice of extortion, oppression, fraud, and deceit, and garnished, about with a most damnable crue, of Procters, Notaries, Registers, Deligates, Advocates, Sumners, and petty apparaters, these haue for many yeares, proued noteable instruments of strife and vexation, vnto the inhabitants of England, and through their decaueabl wayes haue mightily oppressed the people: being not much inferior vnto the preceadent Golden charger.

But to this dish: may it please your holynes, there hath happened this yeare a very great mischance in the kooking, for when wee thought it should haue bin most Laudably boy led vp to its greatest hight of Catholik operatiō, there happened a Spider to fall into it, through a sudden blast of Reformation which hath made it somewhat dangerous now for your holines to taste of, For, the Lamb that was moste richly seasoned in it, is now through this sudden and unexpected, misfortune, Putrified, and the Duck being a watry foule, is quite disolved and this dish by his Ma'tys speciall order, is to be left now to your holines disposall.

Pope, J am much bound to his Ma'ty for his gracious fauour to me herein, J shall be very carefull through deliberation & mature consideration to study for the most fittest disposall thereof during the time of my vicegerency here & then return it againe to his Ma'ties disposall. But I pray you my lord Cardinal what do those coper vessels containe Car'd, May it please your holines: this covered messe is a gallimofre or as the Fleamine calls it a Hutcheipot, wherein are sundry meates stued together: it containes a certaine number of beasts called, corrupt masters of the chancery: & half a dozen corrupt clarkes of the chancery, also 150. Of their puni clarkes comonly termed Aturnies in chancery. it also containes 6 new Aturnies of the Court of requests & some 60 of their puny Clarkes this Hutcheipot is seasoned with the spice of bribery, fallswittneses stieled Knights of the poste, a spice greatly in request in those Courts, especially in the examiners offices and the late Couentry, affidavit office but his Ma'tys speciall commād is to haue this couered mess preserued in its present condition; least contention should sease amongst the inhabitants of England: & vnity & peace take place: which cannot but tend much to his Ma'tys dettryment & loss of dominion in that Kjngdom: and to that end he hath caused the same to be sealedvp: & to be conuayed from Couentry to Manchester by the Goulden Finche.

Pope. Good my Lord Cardjnal J beseech you, let his Ma'tys will & pleasure herein be very carefully accomplished, for it concerns much his Ma'ties honour and our safety.

But what is in this dish my Lord?

Card': this may it please your holines is likewise a Hutch-pot, contayning meates of sundry sorts and operations, it contains a certaine number of Prothonotaries, Registers, & Clerks of the Starrechamber; chancery, court of requests Kings bench, commonpleafe, and the exchequer, this galimofre is seasoned with, subboration of false-witneses, falsifying of orders, and decrees, it is garnished with the subtile practises of the renter warden of the fleete and his imphes, as also with Killvert, killfart, killbennet, kill Bishop and the like instruments of Lawyers gaine, the operation of this dish chiefly consists, in the confusion of mens estates, to extract Gold out of all mens purses, to suppress vertue and peace, and to advance eniquity and contention, to wrong & oppress every man, and to do right to no man.

And this mess is also to be reserved for his Ma'tys Table.

Pope. Good my Lord Cardinall, I pray you let me taste of this mess, the operation whereof by your relation appears to be admirable, I wish from my heart that I might also grow capeabel of that vertue. of extracting Gould out of the English nation, as som of my predessors haue done before me. (I confesse) the study of this Art was begun by my Phisition, most Laud ably, but alas and we' is mee, it was marred by a robustious storm of wind out of the North and quite spoyled by a vehment snower of puritanical raine, And what is this next mess my Lord.

Card' May it pleas: your holines, this is also a Hutch-pot, containing sundry cours meates, as scriveners, brokers, vsurres, iaylors, balifs sergeants, informers, periur'd Church-wardens, iustlers of the peace, & bumbalifs, this mess is seasoned with parchement, deceit, extortion, vsery oppression.

oppression, murdering of Christiā soules in prisons, through famine, false information, iniustice, neglect, and tyranny, & is garnished with a number of irreligious Majors, Sherefs, Feoderies, escheaters, Clarkes of the syse, Clarkes of the peace, Constables and headboroughs. But this mess is by his Ma'ties order to be disposed of vnto his servants.

Pope. Indeed my lord Car'd, my'thinkes this mess hath a very bitter rellish with it, elce my mouth is quite out of taste, I conceaue it to be a mess fit onely for his Ma'ties hell hounds, But What is this last mess.

Card'. I conceaue this mess to be very wel known to your holines, for it is seasoned with moste of those operative spices that all the meat dresed in you holines kitchen is seasoned with, this mess containes diuers iusticiall birds of middlesex as namely the long the hearne, the snape, the hooker the geaye, and the likes of them. Seasoned with the fees and bribes of all the whores, and theefes that liue in Westminster, Coven-Garden, Hollborne, Grub-street, Clarckenwell. Rosemary-lane. Turnbull-street, Rattcliff, Southwarke, banke-side, & kent-street, this dish is also garnished with the new-yeares-gifts, of the whores, theefes, and ut-purfs, dwelling in the fore-named severall places, but this mess is by his Ma'ty, reserued for his owne peculiar pallatt.

Pope. Oh venerable Bead, Oh holy Garnet, O sanctified Fauxe, O reverent Beckett, O beloued Raviliack, Campion, Watson, Parsons, Moorton, Sands, and Admired Bellermine, I call you all to witness this day, wether you or any of you: haue euer as yet bin capeable of such a delicious feast: adorned with so many varieties: beautified with so many severall rareties, and seasoned with such delectable spices. Sancte benedicto Ora pronobis.

And thus rendring all humble and hartty thanks: with all

all Renereñce in all obedience: vnto his Ma'ty: our moſte dambenable prince and Protector: Lucifer: king of ſticks:
and Phleget on: I remaine his Ma'tys humble ſervant: and vice-gerent: at his Ma'tys ſole diſpoſall dureing life.

Take theſe great odds, the cauſe is as they ſay,

The fourth, know's both our ſtock, and cards we play,

This turns the odds, and makes moſte gamſters think,

We'r but in ieſt, and play our cards and winck.

The ſet goes hard, when gamſters think it beſt,

Though three men vie it, the fourth ſets his reſt.

My Maſters, you that vnder take the game.

Looke too't, your conutryes ſafety and her fame

Are now at ſtake, be carefull how you cut

And deale, as knowne occaſions put you too't.

The cards are ſtrangeſly ſhuffed, for your part's,

Ti's odds, you ever get the ace o' hearts.

Yet the ſix finger, and ſome helps beſide,

Lie in the pack diſperſt, be thoſe your guide,

That you poſſeſſ, to tell you what you want.

Leaſt the miſtake of one poore trick ſhould daunt,

Your ſpirits quite, and make you ſling away.

Your liberty, not to be loſt by play,

Deſt ſoule iugling, now ti's in your powers,

Let none but ſquare play paſſ, the game is yours.

For here you ſee, hell, Rome, and all their trayn,

Plot to confound, all your good lawes againe.

Then haue a care, expell Romes impes, make ſure.

Your lawes and Liberties may ſtill indure

To future ages, poſterities then may,

Haue cauſe to bleſſe your memories for aye.

I amerey Lament you Bishops all,
each weare his blackest gowne:
Hang up your Rochetts on the wall,
your pride is going downe.
2 It needs must greeue each Romish hart, to heare this sadd relation:
All Canons are not worth a fatts,
made in the Conuocation.
3 The Bishops holy sinod, and the Priests of Baal, that there Concanted, and concluded all,
are now in grivious feare,
4 To be depriv'd. of Priestly stile.
of Coat Canonickall:
And quite be banished this Ile,
they feare they must be all.
5 Ah, poore, (Etcetera), is now dead,
which greeues the Bishops moste,
What they would haue immortall made,
hath now giuen vp the Goster 6 Alas, that new begotten oath,
like snow against the sun,
It did begin to melt away,
When th' Parliament begun.
7 All Ceremonies are good cheape, and I will tell you how:
The, Tippet, Hood, and Surplis eke, are good for nothing now.
8 And which I wis more woefull is,
and moste their courage quayles:
There was a grievous murder made,
among their holy rayles.
9 Oh, when this sadd and heavy newes, vnto that Symon came:
The Birds and beasts were in a muse, asse, Wren, and Duck, and Lambe.
10 And then a dollfull ditry these,

did thus lament together:
Alas, we must all run away.

when shall we run, and whether, 11 Shall we with windiback to France, or fly to Holland, where The Finch is flone, for vs a place, before hand to prepare.
12 No quoth the Duck, wee'l Fly to Rome and therest without feare.
Of Parliament, and then the Lamb:
may come up in the reare.
13 And ther wee'l drinke a health to all the puritans confusion,
That haue thus strongly wrought our fall
by parliament conclusion.

The Iudges, and the Lawyers all,
Attornies, proctors Clarkees,
Solicitors, and Advo cates,
Must now stand in their Sarks,
And penance do for all their faults,
Their bribes they must restore,
Their cheates and tricks which they did vse,
They practise must no more.
The people, long they haue beguild,
And many a' one undonn,
Gods curll, their wealth for this doth mel
As snow is by the sun.
Their childrne and posterity,
The Gallous doth deuoure
Themselves, haue made a league with hell,
To raigne still by his power.
God is the God of vniy.
Of loue and peace alone,
But these men, for deceit and strife,
The lik's of them theres none.
